Comments Sought by OCC, USDA

Comments are due to OCC by 11/19/2018 and the NMTC Coalition will be submitting its own. Please send comments, thoughts, and suggestions to paul@rapoza.org by November 1st.

The USDA is also seeking public comment on how it might streamline regulations on its loan guarantee programs. Among other questions, the request seeks guidance on how its loan guarantee programs might work better with tax credits. In 2016, USDA released a rule on how the NMTC could work better with the B&I Loan Guarantee program. After some significant revisions to the rule in 2017, there are still significant challenges in using the guarantee program as a source of leveraged debt. Comments are due to USDA by October 22nd. The Coalition plans to comment on this as well. Please send your thoughts and recommendations to paul@rapoza.org by October 18th
