115TH CONGRESS

1ST SESSION

S. _____

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to allow a charitable deduction for certain tuition payments with respect to qualified religious instruction

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

October ___, 2017

Mr. _____ introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Finance

A BILL

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to allow a charitable deduction for certain tuition payments with respect to qualified religious instruction

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as [the “ _____ Act of 2017”].

SECTION 2. DEDUCTION FOR TUITION PAYMENTS FOR QUALIFIED RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

(a) DEDUCTION FOR CERTAIN PORTION OF TUITION PAYMENTS – Section 170 of such code is amended by renumbering subsection (p) as subsection (q), and adding the following language as a new subsection (p):

“(p) Treatment of certain tuition payments paid for qualified religious instruction.

(1) In general. For purposes of this section, 25 percent of any amount described in paragraph (2) shall be treated as a charitable contribution.

(2) Amount described. For purposes of paragraph (1), an amount is described in this paragraph if—

(A) such amount is for payment of qualified tuition and related expenses as defined in section 25A(f)(1), except that such payment is made to a primary or secondary educational organization described in subparagraph (b)(1)(A)(ii) rather than an “eligible educational institution,”

(B) such organization certifies that 30 percent of the instruction it provides each academic year consists of qualified religious instruction, and

(C) such organization has provided the taxpayer a statement which contains the information required by section 6050T.

For this purpose, qualified religious instruction shall mean academic instruction or training regarding a particular religion (including tenets, doctrines, beliefs, rituals, customs, and rites) of a type not generally offered in public school curricula, which is provided by a teacher or other instructor who is certified as having had significant post-secondary religious studies.”

(3) No double benefit. No deduction shall be allowed under this subsection (p) for the amount of any expense for which a deduction, credit or exclusion is allowed to the taxpayer under any other provision of this chapter.

(4) Regulations. The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this subsection.

(b) INFORMATION RETURNS – A new section 6050T shall be added to such Code to read as follows:

“Sec. 6050T. Returns relating to tuition for qualified religious education

(a) In general. Any educational institution described in section 170(p)(2)(A) that meets the requirements of section 170(p)(2)(B) shall make a return with respect to an individual from whom it receives tuition payments and related expenses in such manner and at such time as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe that contains:

(1) the name, address, and TIN of the individual for whom tuition payments and related expenses described in subsection (a) are received,

(2) the net amount of payments for qualified tuition and related expenses received with respect to the individual described in paragraph (1) during the calendar year,

(3) a certification that the institution meets the requirements of section 170(p)(2)(B), and

(4) such other information as the Secretary may prescribe.

(b) Statements to be furnished to individuals with respect to whom information is required. Every person required to make a return under subsection (a) shall furnish to each individual whose name is required to be set forth in such return under subparagraph (a) (1) a written statement showing—

(1) the name, address, and phone number of the information contact of the person required to make such return, and

(2) the information described in paragraph(a).

The written statement required under the preceding sentence shall be furnished on or before January 31 of the year following the calendar year for which the return under subsection (a) was required to be made.

(c) Definition. For purposes of this section, “qualified tuition and related expenses” has the meaning given such term by section 170(p)(2)(A).

(d) Regulations. The Secretary shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this section. No penalties shall be imposed under part II of subchapter B of chapter 68 with respect to any return or statement required under this section until such time as such regulations are issued.”

(c) CONFORMING AMENDMENT -- Section 170(f)(8)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended to add the following sentence at the end thereof:

“The previous sentence shall not apply to any qualified religious instruction meeting the requirements of section 170(p)(2)(B) and (C).”

SECTION 3. EFFECTIVE DATE –

(a) The amendments made by section 2 of this bill shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017.

(b) Nothing contained in the amendments made by this bill shall create any inference regarding the tax treatment of any other payment for religious education or training made before, on, or after the effective date.

Hatch Amendment #5 to Chairman's mark of "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act."

Short Title: Retirement and income tax improvements related to volunteer emergency first responders.

Description of amendment: This amendment increases the limit on annual contributions to length of service award programs consistent with the provisions of S. 1239, the LOSAP CAP Act, and exempts nominal incentives that volunteer firefighters and EMS personnel receive as a reward for their service from being subject to federal income tax and reporting consistent with the provisions of S. 1238, the Volunteer Responder Incentive Protection Act of 2017.

Offset: To be provided.

Hatch Amendment #6 to Chairman's mark of "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act."

Short Title: 12.5% Dividends Paid Deduction for Five Years

Description of Amendment: This provision would allow corporations a deduction equal to 12.5% of the amount of dividends that they pay. This would be temporary for five years.

Background: Under current law, the income of corporations is generally taxed twice -- Once at the corporate level, and then again at the shareholder level when the earnings are distributed as a dividend.

Given that corporations generally deduct interest, this has created a bias in the tax law for corporations to finance via debt rather than via equity. By allowing a partial dividends paid deduction, this would partially correct for this phenomenon.

Furthermore, current law creates distortions in the selection of business entity. This would reduce such distortions.

Generally, and ideally, business income should be taxed once and only once. This amendment would be a step in that direction.

COST: The estimated cost of the amendment will be supplied by the Joint Tax Committee.

OFFSET: To be provided based on Joint Tax Committee score.

Hatch Amendment #7 to Chairman's mark of "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act."

Treatment of Sourcing Rules for US Territories

BACKGROUND:

Code Section 937 provides that income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States shall not be treated as income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within any possession (the U.S. Territories). This rule applies regardless of where the office or fixed place of business connected to such trade or business is located.

Code Section 865 provides favorable treatment on income sourced within Guam, American Samoa, Northern Mariana Islands, and Puerto Rico with respect to personal property sales. The rule that an income tax equal to at least 10 percent of the income from personal property sales must be paid to the foreign country does not apply to Guam, American Samoa, Northern Mariana Islands, and Puerto Rico. Clarification that the US Virgin Islands (USVI) is afforded the same treatment is required to ensure parity among the territories.

AMENDMENT

The amendment would modify the US limitation on effectively connected income to allow consideration of where the office or fixed place of business connected to such trade or business is located. Under the amendment, income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within a possession would be treated as income effectively connected with that possession, to the extent such income is attributable to an office or fixed place of business within that possession. The amendment would not change the general sourcing rules.

The treatment of the sourcing rules for personal property sales within the USVI would clarify that the treatment afforded to the other Territories is applicable to the USVI. Under the amendment, personal property sales in the USVI would be treated the same as personal property sales in other Territories.

COST: The estimated cost of the amendment will be supplied by the Joint Tax Committee.

OFFSET: To be provided based on Joint Tax Committee score.

Short Title: To unify the tax treatment of whistleblower awards

Description of Amendment: Under current law, an above-the-line deduction is provided for certain legal fees in connection with certain whistleblower awards. IRC section 62(a)(20) provides for the deductibility of attorney fees and court costs incurred by a taxpayer in a claim under the False Claims Act (subchapter III of chapter 37 of Title 31 of the United States Code). Additionally, IRC section 62(a) (21) provides a comparable deduction for legal costs associated with awards provided under IRC Section 7623. This amendment would extend the same deduction provided for False Claims Act awards and IRS whistleblower program awards to awards paid under State False Claims Acts, the SEC whistleblower program (Sections 78u-6 and 78u-7 of title 15 of the United States Code), and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission whistleblower program (Section 26 of title 7 of the United States Code).

Short Title: To improve the IRS Whistleblower Program

Description of Amendment: Under current law, IRC Section 7623 provides for awards to be paid to whistleblowers who provide information that leads to collection of taxes that may otherwise go unpaid. This amendment seeks to clarify the basis for such awards by providing a definition for “proceeds”. For purposes of IRC section 7623, proceeds would be defined to include:

“(A) taxes, penalties, interest additions to tax, and additional amounts provided under the internal revenue laws, and (B) any proceeds arising from laws for which the Internal Revenue Service is authorized to administer, enforce, or investigate including (i) criminal fines and civil forfeitures, and, (ii) violations of reporting requirements.”

Moreover, it would amend the disputed amount threshold in 7623(b)(5)(B) so that the $2 million threshold is based on the “proceeds” (as defined above) in dispute.

Grassley Amendment #3 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Cosponsor(s): Senator Thune

Short Title: To increase the time period in which taxpayers may seek to have proceeds from the sale of wrongfully levied property returned to them.

Description of Amendment: The IRS is authorized to levy on property to satisfy a tax debt in certain instances. While the IRS is authorized to return property at any time, it is only authorized to return the monetary proceeds from a sale for up to nine months from the date of the levy. Similarly, if a third party believes the property levied or seized belongs to him/her and not the person against whom the tax is assessed, the third party generally only has nine months from the time of the levy to bring an administrative wrongful-levy action to seek the return of monetary proceeds. In many cases the nine-month period is insufficient for individuals and third parties to discover a wrongful or mistaken levy and seek to remedy it. Consistent with section 202 of S. 1793, the Taxpayer Bill of Rights Enhancement Act of 2017, this amendment would extend from nine months to two years the time period that individuals and third parties have to seek the return of proceeds on the sale of wrongfully levied property.

Grassley Amendment #4 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Cosponsor(s): Senator Thune

Short Title: Individuals held harmless on improper levy on retirement plans.

Description of Amendment: Under present law, if the IRS improperly levies on an IRA or an employer sponsored plan, the individual owning the retirement account may not be made whole, even if the IRS returns the amount levied, with interest, because the individual may lose the opportunity to have those funds accumulate on a tax-favored basis until retirement. Consistent with section 302 of s. 1793, the Taxpayer Bill of Rights Enhancement Act of 2017, this amendment (1) holds the taxpayer harmless by permitting an individual to recontribute wrongfully levied amounts to an IRA or employer sponsored plan without regard to contribution limits, (2) abates any tax that may have been applied with respect to the distribution made as a result of the wrongful levy if recontributed to the IRA or employer sponsored plan, (3) and expands the instances where the IRS must pay interest on amounts returned as a result of a wrongful levy.

Grassley Amendment #5 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017

Cosponsor(s): Senator Thune

Short Title: Increase in and expansion of individual estimated tax exception.

Description of Amendment: Under current law, a penalty is imposed on a taxpayer for the underpayment of estimated tax if tax owed at end of year is $1,000 or more. The threshold was last increased in 1998 from $500 to $1,000. Consistent with Section 304 of S. 1793, the Taxpayer Bill of Rights Enhancement Act, this amendment increases the threshold amount to $2,000. Moreover, the application of this current safe harbor only provides credit for withholding from wages. Consistent with Section 304 of S. 1793, the amendment also expands the application of the safe harbor to provide taxpayers with credit for estimated tax payments provided an estimated tax payment is made in any quarter in which an estimated tax payment is required and the payment is at least 90 percent of the full payment due.

Grassley Amendment #6 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017

Cosponsor(s): Senator Thune

Short Title: Modifications to computation of individual estimated tax.

Description of Amendment: Under current law, calculating interest on underpayments can be complicated and confusing, often requiring multiple calculations that require varying interest rates across payment periods. Consistent with Section 305 of S. 1793, the Taxpayer Bill of Rights Enhancement Act, this amendment simplifies the underpayment calculation by (1) applying only one interest rate per estimated tax underpayment period, (2) providing that underpayment balances are cumulative, and (3) allowing for a 365-day year for all estimated tax interest calculations.

Grassley Amendment #7 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Cosponsor(s): Senator Thune

Short Title: To Increase small corporation threshold for estimated tax payments

Description of Amendment: Under current law, companies with taxable income under $1 million may base their estimated tax payments on the previous year's tax while corporations with taxable income of $1 million or more may not. The threshold has been $1 million since 1996. Consistent with section 307 of S.1793, the Taxpayer Bill of Rights Enhancement Act of 2017, this amendment increases the threshold to $1.5 million to increase the number of small businesses able to use a simplified method for determining estimated tax payments.

Grassley Amendment #8 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Short Title: To waive the user fee for installment agreements using automated withdrawals.

Description of Amendment: Taxpayers who are unable to pay their taxes in full may be eligible to enter into an agreement with the IRS to pay their tax bill through installment payments. However, taxpayers who enter into installment agreements are generally charged a user fee by the IRS in addition to interest and penalties that may continue to accrue during the payment period. To encourage the use of automated installment payments and to increase the efficiency and timely payment of taxes, this amendment (consistent with section 301 of S.1793, the Taxpayer Bill of Rights Enhancement Act of 2017) waives the user fee for installment agreements in which the parties agree to the use of automated installment payments (such as automated debits from a bank account).

Offsets: To be provided.

Thune Amendment #2 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Cosponsors: Senator Roberts

Short Title: CHARITY Act

Description of the Amendment:

Section 1 – Short Title:

Charities Helping Americans Regularly Throughout the Year (CHARITY) Act of 2017.

Section 2 – Sense of the Senate:

This section states that encouraging charitable giving should be a goal of tax reform and that Congress should ensure that the value and scope of the deduction for charitable contributions is not diminished during a comprehensive rewrite of the tax code.

Section 3 – Standard Mileage Rate:

This section would authorize the Treasury Department to align the simplified standard-mileage rate, which applies for purposes of deducting the use of a personal vehicle for volunteer charitable services, with the mileage rate that applies to the deduction for medical and moving expenses. The IRS has the authority to adjust the mileage rates applicable to business and medical/moving deductions so they can keep pace with inflation. However, no authority exists under current law to adjust the mileage rate for charitable activities, and the mileage rate has remained unchanged since 1997.

Section 4 – Modification of Substantiation Requirements for Charitable Contributions:

Under current law, taxpayers must substantiate deductions for charitable contributions of $250 or more with a contemporaneous written receipt by the tax-exempt organization that accepts the contribution. This section would eliminate an exemption from the general rule for contributions that are reported on a return filed by the tax-exempt organization. The provision would address taxpayer concerns about improper disclosure of donor information and prevent improper use of the exception to circumvent the requirement for a contemporaneous written receipt.

Section 5 – Require Non-Profits to File Form 990 Electronically:

Current law requires only the smallest and largest tax-exempt organizations to file their annual returns electronically. This section would require any tax-exempt organization currently required to file Form 990 to do so in electronic form. This section also requires the IRS to make the information on Form 990s available to the public in a machine-readable format. The provision would increase transparency and accuracy while reducing opportunities for tax identity theft and fraud. This section provides authority for the IRS to phase in the electronic filing requirement for smaller tax-exempt organizations.

Section 6 – Donor Advised Funds IRA Rollover Eligibility and Transparency:

This section would expand the provision under current law that permits an owner of an individual retirement account (IRA), who is at least 70½ years old, to exclude from his or her gross income up to $100,000 per year in distributions that are made directly from the owner's

IRA to certain public charities. This section would permit distributions also to be made to donor-advised funds (DAFs). In addition, it would modify the disclosures that tax-exempt organizations that sponsor DAFs must make each year so they include the number of DAFs that had been in existence for 36 months at the end of the tax year as well as the number of those DAFs that made grants during that same 36-month period. Additionally, the DAF-sponsoring organization would be required to indicate whether or not it has a policy with respect to DAFs that become inactive, dormant, or fail to make distributions, describe its policy for responding to such funds, and indicate whether or not the sponsoring organization monitors and enforces that policy. Permitting DAFs to qualify for IRA rollovers would help community foundations, and other public charities that maintain DAFs, further their charitable mission in a transparent manner.

Section 7 – Private Foundation Excise Tax Simplification:

This section would simplify the calculation of the excise tax that applies to the investment income of private foundations. The simplified approach would provide greater certainty to private foundations that currently are required to calculate a tax rate based on charitable distributions over the previous five years. Specifically, the provision would impose a 1-percent excise tax on investment income, but would not require foundations to expend time and resources to calculate the payout rates of previous years.

Section 8 – Philanthropic Enterprise Act:

This section would create a limited exception to the excess-business-holdings tax rules for private foundations that own certain philanthropic businesses, which are otherwise subject to income tax on their earnings. Specifically, the tax would not apply if the foundation meets three requirements: (1) the private foundation is the exclusive owner of the philanthropic business; (2) all profits of the philanthropic business, except for reasonable amounts reinvested into the business, must be distributed to the private foundation; and (3) the operation of the private foundation and the philanthropic business must be independent. This provision would create a new model for private foundations to own certain taxable businesses, which dedicate their earnings to the charitable purposes of the private foundations, without incurring a tax penalty.

Offsets: To be provided.

Thune Amendment #3 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Short Title: Charitable contribution deduction enhancements

Description of the Amendment:

The amendment would extend the excess charitable contribution carryover rule for individuals from 5 years to 15 years. This would allow an individual taxpayer who exceeds the AGI limitations with respect to charitable contributions to carryover the unused deduction for up to 15 years.

The amendment also would extend the excess charitable contribution carryover rule for corporations in section from 5 years to 15 years. This would allow a corporate taxpayer that exceeds the taxable-income limitations with respect to charitable contributions to carryover the unused deduction for up to 15 years.

The amendment would align the standard-mileage rate under section 170(i), which applies for purposes of deducting the use of a personal vehicle for volunteer charitable services, with the mileage rate that applies to the deduction for medical and moving expenses.

The amendment would align the charitable contribution deduction for S corporation electing small business trusts so that the charitable contribution rules applicable to individuals, rather than to trusts, would apply to S corporation electing small business trusts.

Thune Amendment #4 to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Cosponsors: Senators Roberts and Cassidy

Short Title: S Corporation Modernization Act

Description of the Amendment:

Section 1 – Short Title

S Corporation Modernization Act of 2017.

Section 2 – Expansion of Qualifying Beneficiaries of an Electing Small Business Trust

The provision would allow a nonresident alien to be an eligible beneficiary of an electing small business trust (ESBT) holding S-corporation stock, and thus, nonresident aliens would be permitted, through the ESBT, to be shareholders of the S corporation.

Section 3 – Modifications to Passive Income Rules

The provision would increase the passive-income threshold from 25 percent to 60 percent of gross receipts for the excess passive investment tax applicable to S corporations with undistributed C corporation earnings and profits (Code section 1375(a)). The provision also would repeal the rule terminating an S corporation's status if its passive income exceeds the 25-percent threshold for three consecutive years (Code section 1362(d)(3)).

Section 4 -- S Corporation IRA Shareholders

The provision would allow IRAs to hold the stock of any S corporation, whether it is engaged in banking or not. Consistent with the current law treatment for qualified retirement plans, the IRA would be subject to unrelated business income tax on its share of the S corporation's income and on any gain from the disposition of S-corporation shares.

Section 5 – Charitable Contributions for ESBTs

The provision would conform the rule applicable to ESBTs to the rule applicable to individual shareholders of an S corporation and allow an ESBT to claim a deduction for its share of charitable contributions made by the S corporation.

Section 6 – Basis Step-up for S Corporation Assets

The provision would provide greater parity for S corporations by allowing an election to adjust the inside basis of the S corporation's depreciable or amortizable assets upon the death of an S-corporation shareholder. The step-up in basis would be amortizable over a 15-year period and allow the individual inheriting the S-corporation shares to claim as a deduction 1/15th of the stepped-up basis each year. Other shareholders would not be affected. No amortization deduction would be allowed after the termination of the S corporation or after the sale of S-corporation stock by the individual inheriting the stock.

Section 7 – Streamlined Procedures for S Corporation Elections

The provision would simplify the election process by permitting a corporation to elect on its income tax return to be treated as an S corporation for the tax year to which the return relates, provided that the return is filed by the applicable due date (with extensions). In addition, the provision would apply election procedures to qualified S-corporation subsidiary (QSub) that are similar to the rules for electing S-corporation status and permit the IRS to coordinate the election rules for a qualified subchapter S trusts and ESBT with the new election rules for S corporations and QSubs. The provision also would provide that the IRS may accept as timely a late filed revocation if there is reasonable cause shown.

Description of Amendment: The Chairman's Mark imposes a tax on deferred foreign income upon transition to the participation exemption system. The tax is imposed at a rate of 10 percent for aggregate earnings and profits attributable to cash assets, and 5 percent for those attributable to noncash assets. Description of Amendment: This amendment would require income that would otherwise be subject to tax by a European Union Member State pursuant to a Final State Aid Decision issued by the European Commission ("Final State Aid Decision"), to be taxed by the United States as U.S. source Effectively Connected Income ("ECI") at the "cash position" deemed repatriation rate for deferred foreign income under IV.A.3. of the Chairman's mark. To subject the income to such similar tax rates as deferred foreign income, tax rate applicable to the new ECI category of income would be the highest applicable deemed repatriation rate for deferred foreign income under IV.A.3. of the Chairman's mark, and the additional section 884 "branch profits" tax associated with ECI would be eliminated for the section 864(c)(8) income inclusion amount. As a result of the section 864(c)(8) inclusion, the CFC's accumulated deferred foreign earnings and cash position for purposes of applying IV.A.3. of the Chairman's mark would be reduced by the amount of such inclusion. Consistent with IV.A.3. of the Chairman's mark, foreign tax credits that would otherwise have been triggered by the deemed repatriation would be partially available to offset U.S. tax based on the applicable allowed/disallowed dividends received deduction formula.

Short Title: Investing in Opportunity Act

Description of the Amendment: The amendment would authorize the designation of opportunity zones in low-income communities and provide tax incentives for investments in the zones, including deferring the recognition of capital gains that are reinvested in the zones.

Governors may submit nominations for a limited number of opportunity zones to the Department of the Treasury for certification and designation. Governors must give particular consideration to areas that:

- are currently the focus of mutually reinforcing state, local, or private economic development initiatives to attract investment and foster startup activity;
- have demonstrated success in geographically targeted development programs such as promise zones, the new markets tax credit, empowerment zones, and renewal communities; and
- have recently experienced significant layoffs due to business closures or relocations.

Treasury must designate zones if a governor fails to submit nominations within a specified period of time.

An "opportunity fund" is any investment vehicle organized as a corporation or a partnership to invest in opportunity zones that holds at least 90% of its assets in opportunity zone assets.

Taxpayers may temporarily defer the recognition of capital gains that are invested in opportunity zones. Investments in opportunity zones or opportunity funds that are held for at least five years are eligible for capital gains tax reductions or exemptions, depending on how long the investment is held.

Treasury must report to Congress on the opportunity zone incentives enacted in this bill, including an assessment of opportunity fund investments at the national and state levels.

Short Title: Restore State and Local Tax Deduction

Cosponsor(s): Senators Cantwell, Casey, Cardin, Carper

Repealing this deduction would raise taxes on the very middle class taxpayers that this bill is purported to benefit. Repealing the SALT Deduction also imposes a double tax on middle class families.

Short Title: Wage Growth Snapback

Cosponsor(s): Senators Wyden, Stabenow

Menendez Amendment #5 to The Chairman's Mark of the Tax Cuts and Jobs

Short Title: Wage Growth Snapback II

Cosponsor(s): Senator Wyden

Description of Amendment: This amendment would sunset the proposed corporate tax rate if wage growth does not exceed 3% after five years. Wage growth for the middle class has been stagnant even as corporate profits have increased. This legislation proposes to significantly decrease corporate tax rates. If wage growth does not correspondingly rise, then the corporate tax rates should sunset so that individual taxpayers are not left paying for a drastically reduced corporate tax rate.

Carper #1, Stabenow, Bennet, Wyden Amendment to the Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act"

Short Title: To Reverse Tax Cuts for the Top 1% & To Give Middle Class Families a Tax Cut

Description of Amendment: Under current law, high-income taxpayers in the top tax bracket must apply a 39.6% marginal tax rate to ordinary taxable income, applicable to the excess over $470,700 for married couples filing jointly, $418,400 for single filers, $235,350 for married couples filing separately, and $444,550 for heads of households (all amounts annually indexed to inflation).

The Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act" cuts taxes for high-income households by reducing the applicable top rate to 38.6% and increasing the income threshold from the amounts outlined above to $1 million for married couples filing jointly and $500,000 for single filers, for married couples filing separately, and for heads of households.

This amendment strikes the reduction in the top rate and preserves the current-law rate of 39.6%. This amendment further strikes the increase in the top tax bracket threshold and preserves the current law income bracket of $470,700 for married couples filing jointly, $418,400 for single filers, $235,350 for married couples filing separately, and $444,550 for heads of households.

Revenue resulting from this amendment is reserved for middle class tax cuts, accomplished by a revenue-neutral reduction in the tax rate for the 10 percent bracket.

Offset: This provision does not require an offset.

[Note: Amendment sponsor(s) reserve the right to modify this amendment for technical, revenue-related (if applicable), germaneness, or other purposes.]

Carper #2, Bennet, Wyden Amendment to the Chairman's Mark of "Tax Cuts & Jobs Act"

Short Title: To Reverse Tax Cuts for the Top 1% & To Reduce the Deficit

Description of Amendment: Under current law, high-income taxpayers in the top tax bracket must apply a 39.6% marginal tax rate to ordinary taxable income, applicable to the excess over $470,700 for married couples filing jointly, $418,400 for single filers, $235,350 for married couples filing separately, and $444,550 for heads of households (all amounts annually indexed to inflation).

Carper #3, Stabenow, Bennet, Menendez, Wyden Amendment to the Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act"

Short Title: Restore the Tax on Family Dynasties and Aristocrats & Give Middle Class Families a Tax Cut

Description of Amendment: Under current law, a tax is imposed on decedents' estates valued at amounts above a threshold of nearly $11 million per-couple ($5.49 million for individuals), indexed annually. The estate is subject to a tax rate of 40% only on amounts above the applicable threshold. In addition, under current law, a gift tax is imposed on certain lifetime transfers, and a generation-skipping transfer tax generally is imposed on transfers, either directly or in trust or similar arrangement, to a "skip person" (i.e., a beneficiary in a generation more than one generation younger than that of the transferor).

The Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act" doubles the estate and gift tax exemption amount for decedents and gifts made after December 31, 2017—increasing the deficit by nearly $94 billion.

This amendment strikes from the Chairman's Mark any changes to the estate tax, gift tax, and generation-skipping transfer taxes.

Revenue resulting from this amendment is reserved for middle class tax cuts, accomplished by a revenue-neutral reduction in the tax rate for the 10 percent bracket.

Offset: This provision is revenue-neutral and does not require an offset.

Carper #5, Casey, Brown Amendment to the Chairman's Mark of "Tax Cuts & Jobs Act"

Short Title: Energy Tax Reform Package

Description of Amendment: This amendment amends the Internal Revenue Code to strengthen our country's energy policy. This amendment enacts the following provisions:

- 1) Extend Incentives for Manufacturing Jobs in the Energy Sector: This amendment enacts portions of the legislation introduced in the 115th Congress, S.1409, the Technologies for Energy Jobs and Security Act of 2017. This legislation largely reflects provisions included in the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act recently under consideration in the House Ways and Means Committee. Specifically, this amendment: (a) Extends the 30 percent investment tax credit under section 48 of the Internal Revenue Code for stationary fuel cell property (electrochemical devices that use hydrogen and oxygen to produce electricity) and small wind property (turbines with a capacity of up to 100 kW) that begin construction during calendar years 2017, 2018, and 2019—phasing down to 26 percent for projects in 2020, 22 percent for 2021, and phasing-out completely after December 31, 2021; (b) Extends the 10 percent investment tax credit under section 48 of the Internal Revenue Code for combined heat and power (CHP) systems (which capture waste heat from electricity generation and use it to generate useful heating or cooling for buildings), microturbine projects (a smaller form of CHP that provides power for individual buildings), and thermal energy property (geothermal power and heat pumps) that begin construction on or before December 31, 2021; (c) Provides parity for geothermal power with solar power, allowing a 30 percent investment tax credit for commercial geothermal projects that begin construction during calendar years 2017, 2018, and 2019—phasing down to 26 percent for projects in 2020, 22 percent for 2021, and returning to the prior rate of 10 percent after December 31, 2021; and (d) Extends through December 31, 2021 the residential energy credits under section 25D of the Internal Revenue Code that allow taxpayers to claim a 30 percent tax credit to offset part of the cost of buying and installing renewable and alternative energy technologies, including solar electric systems, solar water heaters, fuel cells, small wind energy, and geothermal heat pumps.

- 2) Reform the Offshore Wind ITC: This amendment enacts legislation introduced in the 115th Congress, S.1672, the Incentivizing Offshore Wind Power Act. Recognizing the longer start-up time for offshore wind compared to onshore wind, this amendment amends Section 48 of the Internal Revenue Code by creating an investment offshore wind tax credit for the first 3,000 MW offshore wind facilities placed into service. This amendment: (a) Requires the Secretary of Treasury to consult with the Secretaries of Energy and Interior when establishing the credit; (b) Provides a 30 percent tax credit on the investment in offshore wind for the first 3,000 MW generated; (c) Provides Treasury the authority to make final decision on who is awarded the tax credit. Once a credit is awarded, companies would have five years to install the wind facility; (d) Prohibit companies from receiving other production or investment tax credits in addition to the offshore wind investment tax credit created under the bill; and (e) Defines offshore facility as any facility located in the inland navigable waters of the United States, including the Great Lakes, or in the coastal waters of the United States, including the territorial seas of the United States, the exclusive economic zone of United States, and the outer Continental Shelf of the United States.

- 3) Correct the Code to Include Waste Heat to Power: This amendment enacts legislation introduced by Senator Orrin Hatch in the 114th Congress, S.913, an original bill to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to provide an investment tax credit for waste heat to power technology, which was approved by the Senate Finance Committee via voice vote on February 11, 2015. This legislation amends Section 48 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to include waste heat to power (WHP) technology as eligible technology for the investment tax credit. Waste heat to power uses industrial waste heat (which would otherwise be released into the atmosphere) and captures that energy to generate heat and electricity. This amendment makes WHP eligible for the 10% investment tax credit for projects commencing construction until December 31, 2021.
- 4) Extend Incentives for Alternative Fuel Vehicles and Infrastructure: The amendment amends Sections 30B and 30C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 by permanently extending the investment tax credits for hydrogen fuel cell vehicles and alternative fuel infrastructure. This amendment is effective for tax years after December 31, 2016, which is when both tax credits expired.

Offset: To be provided. Offset is proportionate to provide the appropriate amount of revenue to fully offset this amendment.

[Note: Amendment sponsor(s) reserve the right to modify this amendment for technical, revenue-related (if applicable), germaneness, or other purposes.]

Carper #6, Brown, Wyden Amendment to the Chairman's Mark of "Tax Cuts & Jobs Act"

Short Title: Enact Country-by-Country Minimum Tax at Higher Rate in Order to Prevent Offshoring Jobs and Profits to Tax Havens

Description of Amendment: This amendment (1) replaces the "global" minimum tax" with a "country-by-country" minimum tax and (2) increases the minimum tax to a higher rate.

This amendment strikes the provision in the Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act" that permits calculation on a "global basis" of the minimum tax on the foreign profits of U.S. multinational companies. This amendment replaces that provision with a simpler country-by-country (CBC) minimum tax on all foreign profits of U.S. multinational companies. Under this amendment, the foreign earnings of a controlled foreign corporation or branch or from the performance of services are subject to current U.S. taxation, at a rate of 50 percent of the U.S. rate [or at a different applicable rate, to be determined].

This amendment assigns earnings and taxes to the country based on the tax residence determined under foreign law. In cases where foreign profits of U.S. multinational companies are not subject to foreign tax anywhere, the full minimum tax rate shall apply. This amendment provides that where the same earnings of a CFC are subject to tax in multiple countries, the earnings and all of the foreign taxes associated with those earnings are assigned to the highest-tax country.

This amendment, in assigning earnings to countries under the proposal, both for purposes of determining the foreign effective tax rate as well as for determining the minimum tax base for a particular year, restricts the use of hybrid arrangements to shift earnings from a low-tax country to a high-tax country for U.S. tax purposes without triggering tax in the high-tax country. Specifically, this amendment provides that: (a) no deduction is recognized for a payment from a low-tax country to a high-tax country that is treated as a dividend eligible for a participation exemption in the high-tax country; and (b) the earnings assigned to a low-tax country are increased for a dividend payment from a high-tax country that is treated as deductible in the high-tax country.

Revenue resulting from this amendment is reserved for middle class tax cuts to be determined.

Offset: This provision does not require an offset.

[Note: Amendment sponsor(s) reserve the right to modify this amendment for technical, revenue-related (if applicable), germaneness, or other purposes.]

Carper #7, Brown, Stabenow, Menendez Amendment #7 to the Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act"

Short Title: Improve the R&E Credit

Description of Amendment: This amendment increases the simplified research tax credit and enacts section 2(e) of legislation introduced in the 114th Congress, S.537, the Competitiveness and Opportunity by Modernizing and Permanently Extending the Tax Credit for Experimentation (COMPETE) Act of 2015, as modified by the amendment below.

First, this amendment modifies Section 41 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to permanently extend and increase the alternative simplified research credit from the current-law 14 percent rate to, instead, 20 percent. This modification to Section 41 applies to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017.

Second, this amendment equalizes the treatment of contract research with the treatment of in-house research by amending current-law section 41(b)(3) to split the full (100 percent) value of the credit for "contract" research expenses.

Under current law, 100 percent of qualified research expenditures (QRE) conducted in-house qualifies for the R&D credit, but if a taxpayer ("payor") contracts with another taxpayer ("payee") to do research, then only 65 percent of the qualifying research spending may be claimed for purposes of the research credit on the payor's tax return; no taxpayer may claim the other 35 percent of qualifying research spending against the R&D credit.

This amendment fixes this anomaly by allowing firms undertaking contract-funded research for other companies (i.e., the payee taxpayer who actually conducts the research project) to claim the applicable research credit for the remaining, unused 35 percent of qualifying research expenditures. (Current law allowing payor firms to claim 65 percent of qualifying research spending for purposes of the credit would be unchanged.)

In addition, while the current statute and governing regulations already limit the R&E credit only to that portion of a contract payment that is for qualifying research expenditures (as opposed to overhead and profit, which do not qualify for the credit), this amendment and S.537 also include language further ensuring that any contract payment amounts that are not for qualifying research would be ineligible for this split R&E credit. Specifically, the original proposal in S. 537 is modified such that, for purposes of calculating the split credit:

- 1) Qualifying expenses for the contracted party are limited only to those qualifying expenses that would be allowed for in-house research (and not based on the total contract amount);
- 2) Qualifying expenses are limited so that research that is funded by the Federal government at any step in the process is not allowed as a qualifying expense; and,
- 3) Qualifying expenses are limited to wages as currently defined in Section 41.

This amendment's modifications to apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017.

Offset: To be provided. Offset is proportionate to provide the appropriate amount of revenue to fully offset this amendment.

[Note: Amendment sponsor(s) reserve the right to modify this amendment for technical, revenue-related (if applicable), germaneness, or other purposes.]

Carper-Warner Amendment #8 to the Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act"

Short Title: Patient Capital Investment & Middle Class Tax Cut Amendment

Description of Amendment: Today, too many American companies are preoccupied with short-term profits at the expense of longer-term investments, and this short-term focus robs companies of the investments in capital and people that make them a source of longer-lasting, well-paying jobs.

To address this problem, this amendment modifies the top capital gains rate to create a graduated rate system by holding period. In the case of any taxable year beginning after December 31, 2017:

- a) Short-term Gain (3 years): Effective for assets sold after December 31, 2019, the gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for not more than 3 years would be taxed at ordinary rates.
 - 1) Transition Rule—For assets sold during calendar year 2019, modify “short-term” capital gain category to apply to assets held for 2 years. (Current law “short-term” capital gain one-year holding period continues for calendar year 2018.)
- b) Intermediate-term Gain (4-6 years): Effective for assets sold after December 31, 2019, the gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 3 but not more than 6 years would be taxed at (1) a 29 percent rate for taxpayers in 35 percent and 39.6 percent ordinary income tax brackets, and (2) a 20 percent rate on taxpayers in the 25 percent, 28 percent, and 33 percent ordinary income tax brackets.
 - 1) Transition Rule—2019 Phase-in: For assets sold after December 31, 2018 and prior to January 1, 2020, the gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 3 but not more than 6 years would be taxed at (1) a 26 percent rate for taxpayers in 35 percent and 39.6 percent ordinary income tax brackets, and (2) a 18 percent rate on taxpayers in the 25 percent, 28 percent, and 33 percent ordinary income tax brackets.
 - 2) Transition Rule—2018 Phase-in: For assets sold after December 31, 2017 and prior to January 1, 2019, the gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 3 but not more than 6 years would be taxed at (1) a 23 percent rate for taxpayers in 35 percent and 39.6 percent ordinary income tax brackets, and (2) a 16 percent rate on taxpayers in the 25 percent, 28 percent, and 33 percent ordinary income tax brackets.

- c) Long-term Gain (7-10 years): Effective for assets sold after December 31, 2017, the gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 6 but not more than 10 years would be taxed at (1) a 20 percent rate for taxpayers in 35 percent and 39.6 percent ordinary income tax brackets, and (2) a 15 percent rate on taxpayers in the 25 percent, 28 percent, and 33 percent ordinary income tax brackets.
 - 1) Transition Rule—Transition rules not required, as the new “long-term” gain category effectively continues current law rates for both the new and old holding period.
- d) Ultra-long-term Gain (>10 years): Effective for assets sold after December 31, 2019, the gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 10 years would be taxed at (1) a 15 percent rate for taxpayers in 35 percent and 39.6 percent ordinary income tax brackets, and (2) a 10 percent rate on taxpayers in the 25 percent, 28 percent, and 33 percent ordinary income tax brackets.
 - 1) Transition Rule—2019 Phase-in: For assets sold after December 31, 2018 and prior to January 1, 2020, the gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 10 years would be taxed at (1) a 17 percent rate for taxpayers in 35 percent and 39.6 percent ordinary income tax brackets, and (2) a 12 percent rate on taxpayers in the 25 percent, 28 percent, and 33 percent ordinary income tax brackets
 - 2) Transition Rule—2018 Phase-in: For assets sold after December 31, 2017 and prior to January 1, 2019, the gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 10 years would be taxed at (1) a 19 percent rate for taxpayers in 35 percent and 39.6 percent ordinary income tax brackets, and (2) a 14 percent rate on taxpayers in the 25 percent, 28 percent, and 33 percent ordinary income tax brackets.
- e) Continuation of 0 Percent Bracket: Current law 0 percent capital gains rate for taxpayers in the 10 percent and 15 percent brackets continues as under current law.
- f) Losses and Holding Periods: Retain current law, adapted to new holding-period structure:
 - 1) Capital Losses to Offset Capital Gains: Losses of any type of capital gain shall be used to offset gains of the same type. If net losses exceed the same applicable gain type, then: (1) Short-term losses then may be used to offset intermediate-term gain or loss, then long-term gain or loss, and then ultra-long-term gain or loss; (2) Intermediate-term losses then may be used to offset long-term gain or loss, and then ultra-long-term gain or loss; and (3) Long-term losses then may be used to offset ultra-long-term gain or loss. Net losses of any type may be deducted against any gain.

- 2) Gains to Offset Ordinary Income: Modify IRC Sec. 1211 limitation on the ordinary income deduction for capital losses that exceed capital gains (currently at $3,000 for married filing jointly, $1,500 for others) to increase based on CPI-U starting in years after December 31, 2017. (Retain current-law carryover provision.)
- g) Dividend Taxation: Modify current-law qualified dividend income taxed as net capital gain to be qualified dividend income taxed as net “intermediate-term” capital gain (using the applicable bracket categories and, where applicable, definitions as set forth in intermediate-term capital gain section above). Specifically, effective for dividends received after December 31, 2017, such dividends would be subject to tax as follows: 29 percent tax rate on taxpayers in the 35 percent and 39.6 percent ordinary income brackets; 20 percent tax rate on taxpayers in the 25 percent, 28 percent, and 33 percent ordinary income brackets; and 0 percent tax rate on taxpayers in the 10 percent and 15 percent ordinary income brackets.

Revenue resulting from this amendment is reserved for middle class tax cuts.

Short Title: Progressive Consumption Tax Act

Description of amendment: This amendment provides an alternative plan for comprehensive tax reform consistent with the provisions of S. 3529 (114th Congress), the Progressive Consumption Tax Act.

The Progressive Consumption Tax Act alters the composition of U.S. taxes by imposing a broad-based, credit-invoice value-added tax at a 10 percent rate. The corporate tax rate is lowered to 17 percent and the individual income tax code is simplified, with the top income tax rate reduced to 28 percent. To maintain progressivity, the Act exempts the first $100,000 of taxable income for joint filers ($50,000 for single filers) and provides a rebate to low- and middle-income households based on income and family size. The Act is intended to be revenue neutral and result in tax rates on consumption, individual income, and corporate income below the OECD average. To alleviate concerns regarding the amount of taxes raised, the Act rebates excess consumption tax collected if revenues from the new consumption tax exceed 10 percent of gross domestic product for the calendar year.

Brown-Bennet-Stabenow-Menendez Amendment #2 to The Chairman’s Mark of the “Tax Cuts and Jobs Act”

Short Title: Putting Money in the Pockets of the Middle Class.

Description of Amendment: The Chairman’s Mark replaces the individual income tax rate structure with a new rate structure for Federal Individual Income Tax Rates. This amendment reduces the top tax rate for middle-class American workers. The amendment cuts the top rate for taxpayers earning just over $50,000, the median income in Ohio and nationally. The 22.5 percent bracket is eliminated and the top threshold for the 12 percent bracket is increased as follows:

For individuals the top threshold for the 12 percent bracket goes from $38,700 to $60,000. For heads of household the top threshold for the 12 percent bracket is increased from $51,800 to $60,000. For married individuals filing joint returns and surviving spouses the top threshold for the 12 percent bracket is increased from $77,400 to $120,000. For married individuals filing separate returns the threshold for the 12 percent bracket is increased from $38,700 to $60,000.

	Threshold for the 12 Percent Bracket Under the Chairman's Mark	Threshold for the 12 Percent Bracket Under Brown Amendment #1
Individuals	$38,700	$60,000
Head of Household	$51,800	$60,000
Married Filing Jointly	$77,400	$120,000
Married Filing as Individuals	$38,700	$60,000

In addition, in order to make sure that the distribution of the tax burden for upper earners contained in the Chairman’s Mark is maintained, this amendment establishes a “bubble rate” at the level necessary to offset the reduction in taxes caused by the collapsing the 22.5 percent bracket into the 12 percent bracket. The “bubble rate” would apply to all individual, head of household, and married filing as individuals filing in the 35 percent and 38.5 percent bracket. The “bubble rate” would apply to all married individuals in the 32.5 percent, 35 percent, and 38.5 percent.

Offset: TBD. Amendment is proportionate to the extent the offset provides

Brown-Stabenow Amendment #3 to The Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act"

Short Title: Stop Price Gouging Act

Description of Amendment: This amendment imposes an excise tax on pharmaceutical companies that sell prescription drugs that are subject to price spikes that exceed the annual percentage increase in the medical care consumer price index detailed expenditure category for all urban consumers (U.S. city average).

For each taxable prescription drug, the excise tax ranges from 50% to 100% of price spike revenue received by the company, depending on the size of the price spike and including an adjustment for revenue that is due solely to an increase in the cost of the inputs necessary to manufacture the drug.

Pharmaceutical companies must submit specified data regarding drug prices and revenue to the Inspector General (IG) of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and the IG must submit an assessment of the data to the Internal Revenue Service.

HHS, upon the recommendation of the IG, may exempt certain drugs from the excise tax if: (1) a for-cause price increase exemption should apply; (2) the drug has an average manufacturer price of not greater than $10 for a 30-day supply; and (3) the drug is Marketed by at least 3 other holders of applications approved under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

The Government Accountability Office must examine: (1) how drug manufacturers and health plans establish initial launch prices for newly approved drugs, and (2) alternative methods that have been proposed for setting the price of new drugs.

Brown Amendment #4 to The Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act"

Short Title: The Corporate Freeloader Fee

Description of Amendment: This amendment creates a new excise tax that would reimburse taxpayers for subsidizing a company's workforce through supplementing low-wages and insufficient health and retirement benefits with social-safety net payments. The fee would be based on the percentage of staff earning wages less than 218 percent of the federal poverty rate for an individual person, or $26,290 for 2017. The fee would be assessed only on employers that have paid $100,000 in payroll taxes a day for 180 days in the last year, and it would be scaled based on the percentage of a company's workers below the threshold. For example, a fee of 25 basis points of total payroll would be levied on employers with 25 percent or less of their workforce earning less than a living wage. The fee would increase to 50 basis points for companies with between 25 percent and 50 percent of their workers earning less than a living wage. The fee would be 75 basis points for employers with between 50 percent and 75 percent of employees earning less than a living wage and 100 basis points for more than 75 percent of employees and above. Companies could reduce their fees by 25 basis points if they provide healthcare benefits and make employer contributions to retirement.

Corporate Freeloader Fee Structure
% Employees Below 218% FPL	Fee as % of Total Payroll
Less than or equal to 25%	25 basis points
Greater than 25% up to 50%	50 basis points
Greater than 50% up to 75%	75 basis points
Greater than 75%	100 basis points

In recognition of the different business circumstances that small employers face, companies with fewer than 50 employees could qualify for the tax credit by fulfilling a subset of these criteria.

Brown-Stabenow Amendment #23 to The Chairman's Mark of the "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act"

Short Title: Grow American Incomes Now

Description of Amendment: This amendment to the Chairman's Mark roughly doubles the EITC for working families and increases the credit for childless workers almost sixfold. Under the proposal, the maximum tax credit available increases to $12,131 for families with three or more qualifying children; $10,783 with two qualifying children; $6,528 with one qualifying child; and $3,000 with no qualifying children. Currently, a family of three can receive a maximum credit of $6,318 and someone with no children can receive at most a $510 tax credit.

The proposed EITC expansion would also be phased out at higher income levels and remain fully refundable. It would allow for a worker with no children who makes up to $37,113 annually to still be eligible to receive the tax credit and covers a family with three or more children making up to $75,940 a year to receive the EITC. The current maximum qualifying income to receive the EITC is $15,010 for childless workers and $48,340 for families with three or more children.

The amendment also recognizes many Americans live paycheck to paycheck and includes a provision that would provide an Early Refund EITC as an alternative to payday loans and other predatory lending products, which typically carry exorbitant fees and charges. Payday loans are generally made to individuals who are working and often eligible for the EITC. The average payday loan is about $375. This provision aims to break the cycle of debt by offering workers to annually claim a one-time, $500 advance on the EITC for the following taxable year. The bill also lowers the qualifying age for the EITC from 25 years old to 21 years old.

Offset: To be provided.

Bennet #7, Brown, Casey Amendment to Chairman's Mark of Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Short Title: An amendment to support Coal Communities

Description of Amendment:

Coal Community Empowerment Act. This amendment would add the tax provisions for coal communities facing economic transitions in Title I of the Coal Community Empowerment Act (S. 1743 of the 115th Congress) to the legislation, with the exception of Section 1400V-2(e), “the special rules for increased Section 179 expensing,” as this change conflicts with other parts of the legislation.

Following is a summary of those provisions: Counties designated as Coal Communities have either lost 50 coal mining jobs since 2011 (out of a total employed workforce of no more than 20,000) or have more than five percent of their employed workforce in coal mining and are therefore vulnerable to continued pressures on coal demand. The amendment is designed to spur hiring, investment, and growth in Coal Communities through:

- A $3,000 hiring credit for employers that hire individuals who live or work in a Coal Community;
- $300 million in additional New Markets Tax Credits specifically dedicated to Coal Communities;
- A $1 billion allocation of private activity bonds to allow for low-cost loans to build facilities in Coal Communities;
- Tax incentives for building or revitalizing commercial buildings in a Coal Community;
- Eliminating capital gains taxes on the sale of stock in a business in a Coal Community if the investment is held for five years, and allowing for a tax-free rollover of certain investments.

Description of Amendment: The amendment ensures executives and shareholders at large profitable corporations don't get a raise unless workers do too. Under the amendment, corporations will annually determine whether the lesser of their workers' average and median wages increase by a proportionate amount, for each quintile, to increases in executive compensation, stock buy backs and dividends to shareholders. With respect to companies failing this test, the corporate rate reduction shall not apply for the following year, and the corporate rate under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall be applied and administered.

For example, if in 2018 dividends, executive compensation and stock buy backs for a company increase by $50 million from the previous year, and the company has 50,000 employees, the lesser of employee median and average wages should go up by at least $1,000; if it does not, then the company does not benefit from the corporate tax rate reduction. A company shall not have complied with this requirement unless workers terminated without cause in the prior two years receive a direct payment that is at least equal to the greater of the average or median wage increase.

This amendment is effective for tax years beginning after 2018.

Short Title: Reinvesting repatriated earnings in robust worker training

Description of Amendment:

In an era of rapid technological change that demands of our workers continuous reskilling and retraining into new occupations as quickly as they arise, never has it been more important for our businesses and our government to make investments in our workforce.

To ensure we build towards a shared American prosperity that looks to our future, this amendment requires companies to use repatriated earnings for robust, qualified worker training of their lower- and moderate-income workers above their previous baseline of qualified training expenditures. If they fail to do so, they lose the benefit of the lower deemed repatriation rate, and their earnings are instead taxed at double that repatriated rate.

Qualified training: For the purposes of this amendment,

- Qualified training must be provided through a nationally or state-recognized registered apprenticeship program; a WIOA-certified training program; a program conducted by an area career and technical education school, community college, or labor organization; or a program sponsored or administered by an employer, industry trade association, industry or sector partnership, or labor organization.
- Qualified training must result in the attainment of a recognized postsecondary credential, including an industry-recognized certificate or certification, a certificate of completion of an apprenticeship, a license recognized by the State or Federal Government, or an associate or bachelor's degree.
- The baseline amount is calculated using the average qualified training expenses on their lower and moderate income employees in the previous three years

In order to receive the lower, deemed repatriation tax rate on deferred foreign income, repatriated earnings must be used to provide qualified training to lower- and moderate-income employees – those earning $82,000 or less per year.

Offset: To be provided. Offset is proportionate to provide the appropriate amount of revenue to fully offset this amendment.

Warner Amendment #2 to the Chairman's Mark of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Short Title: Healthy Food Access for All Americans, S.1724

Description of Amendment:

Currently, an estimated 37 million Americans live in what the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) classifies as a food desert – not living within a mile of a grocery store in urban communities or 10 miles of a grocery store in rural areas. The lack of healthy food options has devastating effects on the health of communities, leading to higher incidents of obesity, diabetes, and heart disease.

This amendment addresses this issue by amending the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to establish a new tax credit and grant program to stimulate investment and healthy nutrition options in food deserts, as set forth in S.1724, the Healthy Food Access for All Americans Act.

Under S.1724, food providers who service low access communities could submit applications to the Treasury Department for certification as a “Special Access Food Provider (SAFP).” With this designation, providers would receive specified tax credits or grants for servicing food deserts based on the following structure:

New Store Construction- Companies that construct new grocery stores in a food desert will receive a onetime 15% tax credit after receiving certification.

Retrofitting Existing Structures- Companies that make retrofits to an existing store’s healthy food sections can receive a onetime 10% tax credit after the repairs certify the store as an SAFP.

Food Banks- Certified food banks that build new (permanent) structures in food deserts will be eligible to receive a onetime grant for 15% of their construction costs.

Temporary Access Merchants- Certified temporary access merchants (i.e. mobile markets, farmers markets, and some food banks that are 501(c)(3)s) will receive grants for 10% of their annual operating costs.

The Treasury Department, in consultation with the Healthy Food Financing Initiative (HFFI) at USDA, would certify merchants as SAFP’s based on the following metrics:

Tax credit:

1. Must build or retrofit a store in a food desert.
2. Must have forecasted grocery inventory of at least 35%.
3. Must submit a formal project proposal to the Treasury Department.
4. Other metrics as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury in consultation with the Secretary of Agriculture.

Grants for new construction of permanent food banks:

1. Must submit a formal project proposal to the Treasury Department.
2. Other metrics as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury in consultation with the Secretary of Agriculture.

Grants for temporary access structures:

1. Must service a food desert for at least five days and fifty hours every week, or distribute an “adequate” amount of food as determined by the Treasury Department in consultation with the USDA (or 10 hours a week in the case of a farmers market).
2. Must be a non-profit under 501(c)(3).
3. Must submit a formal project proposal to the Treasury Department.
4. Other metrics as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury in consultation with the Secretary of Agriculture.

To track progress nationally and locally, Treasury will consult with the USDA to ensure updated information on the Food Access Research Atlas.

For the purposes of this legislation, a food desert is defined by the USDA metric of living one (or more) miles away from a grocery market in urban areas and living 10 or more miles away from a grocery market of the same tier in rural regions. Only food deserts that have a poverty rate tract of 20% (or higher) or a median family income tract of less than 80% of the median for the state or metro area, will be applicable. A grocery market would be defined as a retail sales store with at least 35% of its selection (or forecasted selection) dedicated to selling fresh or frozen produce, poultry, dairy, and deli items (including sliced meats, cheeses, and salads).

Short Title: Employer Participation in Repayment Act, S.796

Description of Amendment:

Our current employer tuition assistance program—as outlined in section 127 of the Internal Revenue Code—allows employers to provide up to $5,250 per year in tax-free employer education assistance benefits for undergraduate or graduate courses. Though recipients are not required to be degree-seeking, they are required to be currently enrolled in courses. As currently constructed, Section 127 excludes students who have already accumulated student loan debt, and offers them no relief.

Nationwide, Americans owe more than $1.45 trillion in student loan debt, outstripping credit cards and auto loans as the country's leading source of non-housing debt. S.796 expands Section 127 to include employer payments towards eligible student loan debt. This approach would leverage employer contributions to provide borrowers with student loan relief in a measured, fiscally moderate way that helps them pay down their loans and serves as a recruitment and retention tool—especially for younger employees who are typically not large consumers of health care, retirement, and insurance benefits early in their careers.

Warner Amendment #4 to the Chairman's Mark of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Cosponsors: Casey, Stabenow

Short Title: Investing in American Workers, S.2048

Description of Amendment:

Nations with skilled workforces have been linked to higher wages, economic success, and shared prosperity. In an era of rapidly changing skillsets and technology, investing in worker training to move more Americans up the economic ladder has never been more important.

This amendment improves the incentive for employers to increase the amount and quality of employer spending on a wide variety of workforce training programs, as set forth in S.2048, the Investing in American Workers Act.

S.2048 establishes a tax credit for employers who increase their spending on worker training.

- Employers who spend more on training their workers in a given year than they have on average in the previous three years are eligible to receive a tax credit based on their increase in spending.
- The amount of the credit is equal to 20 percent of the increased spending.
- The spending eligible for the credit must be used to provide qualified training to employees earning $82,000 or less per year.
- For employers who are new to spending on qualified training or have a gap in any of the past three taxable years, the credit is calculated as 10 percent of the qualified training expenditures for the current year, multiplied by a cost-of-living adjustment factor.

Under S.2048, qualified training may be provided through a nationally or state-recognized registered apprenticeship program; a WIOA-certified training program; a program conducted by an area career and technical education school, community college, or labor organization; or a program sponsored or administered by an employer, industry trade association, industry or sector partnership, or labor organization. Qualified training must result in the attainment of a recognized postsecondary credential, including an industry-recognized certificate or certification, a certificate of completion of an apprenticeship, a license recognized by the State or Federal Government, or an associate or bachelor's degree.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of Labor, must issue regulations or guidance on the definition of "recognized postsecondary credential" within one year.

Qualified small businesses grossing less than $5,000,000 for at least six years in a row, as well as qualified tax-exempt entities, can elect to apply up to $250,000 of the credit against payroll taxes. This payroll credit may not be claimed for more than five consecutive years.

At any point, should the Secretary of the Treasury determine that actual revenues in the prior fiscal year were less than the target, the revenue shortfall shall be offset in the upcoming fiscal year by reverting the corporate tax rate and top individual tax rate to current law levels.

Warner Amendment #6 to the Chairman's Mark of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

Cosponsors: Wyden-Bennet-Cardin

Short Title: Making delayed and temporary tax cuts permanent

Description of Amendment:

One way to mask the true cost of a tax plan is to make some tax provisions only temporary, meaning that the provision terminates or applies only to periods, transactions, or events before a specified date. History suggests that while a tax provision may be enacted as temporary, Congress extends the provision repeatedly, sometimes paying for the extension, and sometimes not paying for the extension. Another way in which the true cost of a tax plan is hidden is by delaying or phasing in provisions, putting less revenue loss in the budget window, while still creating a permanent revenue loss.

This amendment would make all provisions permanent and fully in effect in 2018.

History suggests that while a tax provision may be enacted as temporary, Congress extends the provision repeatedly, sometimes paying for the extension, and sometimes not paying for the extension.

This amendment would require the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) and the Joint Committee on Taxation (JCT) to provide an informational estimate of the cost of all temporary and sunseting tax provisions as if they were permanent tax provisions.

Short Title: Knowing the true cost of tax cuts

Description of Amendment:

When Congress passes large unpaid for tax cuts, it is masking the true additional burden put on future taxpayers by ignoring the additional interest that the U.S. will have to pay. For example, the Congressional Budget Office has already said that the tax plan considered in the House of Representatives would add over $250 billion in new interest costs for the U.S. in the next ten years.

This amendment would require the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) and the Joint Committee on Taxation (JCT) to provide an informational estimate of the additional interest cost of any bill that would increase the deficit.

Text of Amendment

Where appropriate, insert the following:

(a) CBO and JCT Estimates.—During the 115th Congress, in the Senate, any covered cost estimate for a bill, joint resolution, amendment, amendment between the Houses, motion, or conference report that would increase the level of debt shall also include, for information purposes only, an estimate of the cost of additional interest payments due to from the additional debt.

(b) In this section, the term “covered cost estimate” means an estimate provided—

(1) by the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (2 U.S.C. 653);
